6.2. Conversion of Scores and Placement Process

Evaluation and placement processes will be carried out as follows.

1. The scores of the internationally recognized exams determined by our university will be formulated and converted over 100 and the student's application score will be determined accordingly.

2. Application scores out of 100 will be ranked starting from the highest score and a placement list will be created within the quotas determined by the senate. (The country quota limit determined by the Presidency of the Council of Higher Education and the Senate of our University will be taken into account when creating these evaluation rubrics.)

3. The Placement of the candidates will start with the candidate with the highest score, and the candidate student will be placed in their first preference first. If the quota allocated to the preferred department is full, the student will be placed in the next preferences in their order.

4. If all the quotas of the candidate's preference are already full, the placement of the candidate will not take place and the candidate will fall into the substitute list.

5. After the placement of the of the candidates in the Main List, if there are vacant quotas, the placement of the substitute students will be executed by starting from the candidate with the highest score in the substitute list, and the placement of the substitute students will continue until the quotas are filled during the placement periods.

6. In case of an equality in the scores of the applicants;

- a) Priority is given to the student with a higher overall grade average, taking into account the High School Diploma grade average of the candidate student.
- b) In case of the equality persists, the younger candidate will be given priority.

7. During the evaluation of the applications by the commission, additional documents submitted by students in the "other documents" section of the application, such as the student statement of intent, foreign language proficiency certificates, awards, and qualifications obtained by students in international competitions, may be evaluated by the committee, and additional points may be awarded to the student.
